Hennadii Bublikov

Front-End developer

I'm ready for new challenges that bear the company needs to expected goals. I like this job and the results painted by my code. The time, when many things for me looks impossible, is in the past. And each time every impossible issue I managed to become possible, that's why I'm ready to any difficulties, nothing will scare me)

My main achievements are:
- Successful project releases on time;
- Provided a strong foundation for further feature implementation;
- Strong problem-solving skills.

I write clear, maintainable code. Responsible for deadlines. Commercial experience in front-end development - 1+ year. Participated in different commercial projects. Good communication skills.
